

Emirates Stadium Travel Information

Getting to Emirates Stadium is simple, London's comprehensive public transport system will take you within a few minutes walk of the ground where clearly located pedestrian signs will help you find your way on-street.

Tube and Rail

Arsenal Station (Piccadilly Line) is around three minutes walk from the ground. Finsbury Park (Victoria / Piccadilly Lines and overground rail) and Highbury & Islington (Victoria Line, North London Line, overground rail) stations are around 10 minutes walk from Emirates Stadium - and should be slightly less crowded than Arsenal Station.

King's Cross is the main station for overground rail and is also served by many underground lines. To get to the stadium from Kings Cross connect with the Piccadilly Line to Arsenal Station or the Victoria Line to Highbury & Islington. Alternatively, a short overground rail journey of one stop will take you to Finsbury Park station.

Bus

Buses are fast and convenient with connections passing the ground on all sides. Main bus stops are located on Holloway Road, Nag's Head, Seven Sisters Road, Blackstock Road and Highbury Corner. Direct, high frequency services from much of north and central London travel within five minutes walk of the ground.

Walking

Local pedestrian routes will be clearly signposted from all local transport gateways directing you along approved routes to the stadium
